WE are in receipt of the Bivouac, a magazine published monthly, by the Southern Historical Association of Louisville. It is filled with reminiscences of the late war, and is of rare interest to all old soldiers in either army. The price is $1.50 per annum, and well worth the money.

AROUND THE CIRCLE.

There are fifty-seven cases of small-pox in Newport and the disease is still spreading.

A terrier dog has taken charge of a flock of thirty turkeys in Oldham county, following them in their wanderings through the day, and driving them home at night, using coercion when necessary. He permits neither chickens nor hawks to molest his charges.

Buffalo Bill and Sitting Bull.

Buffalo Bill (Hon. W. F. Cody), the renowned scout and actor, has made a decided hit for the coming theatrical season in employing the celebrated Sitting Bull (the Indian chief who slew Custer and his command on the Little Big Horn) as one of his chief attractions. Buffalo Bill's success as an actor, adds an additional charm to the romance of his life as the greatest of all living scouts and plainsmen. The Historical Publishing Co., St. Louis, have issued a life of this remarkable man, whose fame is even greater than that of Daniel Boone or Davy Crockett, embracing also the lives of Wild Bill, California Joe, Texas Jack, Kit Carson, and other great Indian fighters. It is a book of wild life on the Plains, and must meet with great popularity. The name of the author, Mr. J. W. Buel, is a host within itself. Persons desiring agencies will find the advertisement in this paper.

HASHUALITIES.

THE Rev. J. S. French has accepted the call to the Baptist pastorate of this city.

Twenty thousand dollars has been offered for Jerome Eddy, the stallion with a 2:16 record.

Truth is indeed stranger than fiction. The wife of a prosperous Long Island farmer eloped with a book agent.

Mark Smith, formerly of Lexington, has been nominated for District Attorney by the Democrats of Tombstone, Arizona.

We picked up the following dispatch under date of Lexington, Sept. 28th on Main street yesterday:

"Charlie, you must be more discreet. I telegraphed you yesterday that the 'danger' signal was out, and yet I saw you prowling around. Matinee at 3 o'clock to-day, when I'll box your ears for indiscretion."

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Also excellent for human flesh. READ PROOF. BELOW FROM

COL. L. T. FOSTER.

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO, MAY 10th, 1880. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I had a very valuable Hambletonian col which I prized very highly; he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other, which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons who failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and got our druggists here to send for it; they ordered three bottles, I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, and used according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame, and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colts limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles who are now using it. Very Respectfully, L. T. FOSTER.

Kendall's Spavin Cure. ON HUMAN FLESH.

Patten's Mills, N. Y., Feb. 21st, 1878. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—The particular case on which I used your Kendall's Spavin Cure was a malignant ankle sprain of sixteen months standing. I had tried many things but in vain. Your spavin cure put the foot to the ground again, and for the first time since hurt in a natural position. For a family liniment it excels anything we ever used.

Yours truly, REV. M. P. BELL, Pastor of M. E. Church, Patten's Mills, N. Y.
